Band Christmas Concert

The Band will be holding their Christmas Concert this year at the Erin Arts Centre in Port Erin on Saturday 1st December, starting at 7.30pm.

This concert will again be the Band's first concert of the Christmas season; in fact, the first of 15 engagements on the lead up to Christmas Day 2018. The Band are looking to put on a great concert to set everybody in the mood for Christmas.

Tickets for the concert have gone very quickly, so much so that the concert was sold out after 5 days! It will be great for the Band to play to a full audience.

Concert with Mr Richard Evans

The Band held a concert in October with our guest conductor and Band Musical Advisor Mr Richard Evans. Due to other events taking place the same day, the concert was a late afternoon affair and it was nice to see a good audience there to hear the culmination of the Band's efforts over the weekend.

The Band had been put through their paces by Mr Evans during three practices on the days leading up to the concert, and Mr Evans was his usual enthusiastic self for which the players certainly fed off. The programme itself was a varied ensemble of pieces that really showed the ability of the band, and Mr Evans has seen a vast improvement in the music the Band members can now challenge themselves to play compared to his first visit back in 2003.

The Band always appreciate Mr Evans' visit to the Island, and we're pleased to confirm that he is already booked for 2019...

...We're already looking forward to it.

Oie'll Verree Service

The New Year will only be a few days old when the Band plays their first concert of 2019.

The Oie'll Verree Service will be taking place at Kerrowkeil Chapel on Friday 4th January 2019 (Old Christmas Eve) starting at 7.30pm.

The Service is always a great way to welcome in both old Christmas Eve and the New Year, but try to get there early as seats are at a premium.

Band Annual General Meeting

The Band will be holding their Annual General Meeting on Thursday 29th November at 7.45pm at the Bandroom. Everyone is welcome and encouraged to attend.

Looking forward to 2019

Next year is the 70th anniversary of the Band changing its name from 'Surby Silver Band' to 'Rushen Silver Band'. To celebrate this, the Band are looking to play at numerous community based events during the year.

Following the Oie'll Verree Service, the Band will be holding a concert on Monday 21st January at St Columba's Church. This concert will consist of music chosen by the members of the Band and will no doubt provide some light relief away from playing carols and Christmas music, although not for long....

...This is because the Band are picking the Christmas music back up for recording a CD. This will be the third CD for the Band and it is hoped to record this in the middle of festive February. We hope it will be on sale ready for the Christmas 2019 season. Watch this space!

Thank you to Phil Woodford for another fabulous Christmas cartoon ☺
